for an unlimited full-time or part-time (at least 20h/week) position in order to reinforce our Gräfelfing/Munich based team.

As Public Relations and Social Media Manager, you will mainly be working with our Head of Investor Relations and Communications as well as with other internal and external partners of Immunic.

We anticipate a broad scope of activities:

- Representation of Immunic to press/media and on social media, in line with Immunic's overall communications strategy
- Interaction with journalists across all tiers, incl. proactive outreach, coordination of interviews and articles etc.
- Creation of relevant content for press/media, e.g., interviews, bylined articles, company profiles etc.
- Conceptualization, implementation and maintenance of strategic social media campaigns to strengthen Immunic's social media presence
- Development of creative visualization options for social media
- Organization and realization of press/media events and support of conferences
- Coordination with external partners and consultants
- Analysis and reporting

Here is how to convince us:

- You have a degree in communications, PR, marketing or a related field of study, preferably with a background in healthcare or biotechnology.
- You have at least one year of professional experience working in communications, public relations, journalism and/or social media.
- You have a passion for texts and can tailor them to different channels. You have the ability to translate complex scientific topics into interesting stories.
- You are an open-minded and creative person enjoying active communication.
- You are an organized person with team spirit and a hands-on mentality.
- You are a digital native and have proficient knowledge of Microsoft Office tools (Word, PowerPoint, Excel) and social media platforms (Twitter, LinkedIn, Facebook, XING, etc.).
- You are fluent in German and English, with the ability to communicate accurately and effectively in verbal and written form.

What you can expect:

- A fair salary commensurate with your experience
- An innovative, international company that is constantly growing
- You can participate in the success of our company
- A flexible and dynamic working environment
- A highly motivated, multicultural team
- An attractive office with parking space and public transport connections to Munich city center
- State-of-the art IT support, incl. own MacBook and iPhone

Please send your meaningful application specifying your salary expectations as well as the earliest possible starting date by email to jobs@imux.com.
